ALLEGES FRAUD.

Max Swirid of Burlington Wants His Money Back.

Burlington, Jan. 8.—J. H. Felber, an inventor of a process for plating mirrors, was arrested Friday night on a body writ in favor of Max Swirid, who brings suit to recover $300, which Swirid claims was obtained from him under false pretenses and by fraud.

Swirid speaks English with difficulty, being unable to read or write. He has been in this country but two years, but by hard work he succeeded in saving $300, with which he bought stock in a business concern of which Felber is manager. Swirid has just heard that his family is destitute in Russia, and because Felber would not return his money invested in the company stock, caused his arrest. Felber denies any attempt at fraud.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE.

East Middlebury Man Directed to Dentist's Office Disappears.

Middlebury, Jan. 8.—A case with some mysterious features occasioned considerable talk on the streets yesterday. L. B. Boardman of East Middlebury came to town on Thursday and reported that he had an aching tooth all the previous night and wished to be directed to a dentist. He was sent to one of the dental offices, but since that time persons interested in his welfare have been unable to discover his whereabouts. A relative who was asked about the case says he knows all about it but will not give out any information except that the man has not gone home and is not able to go. Officials say he is not under arrest and a rumor has gained circulation that he has been unconscious for over 24 hours.

DEATH FROM A FALL.

Adelard Morrison of Burlington Died Saturday Night.

Burlington, Jan. 8.—Adelard Morrison died at his home on Luck street last evening of concussion of the brain. Mr. Morrison was calling at the house of Mederick Sordoff on Intervale avenue, Thursday evening, and on leaving at 6:30 fell down the flight of stairs leading from the piazza, a distance of 15 feet. One of the members of the Sordoff family went out a few minutes later and found young Morrison lying on the sidewalk in an unconscious condition. He was immediately taken into the house and a physician was summoned. It was impossible to restore him to consciousness and yesterday morning he was taken to the home of his parents on Luck street.

Declared He Was Not Guilty.

St. Albans, Jan. 8.—J. P. Seguin of Burlington, who was arrested in that city some time ago on a charge of forgery and brought to this city where he was lodged in Franklin county jail, was arraigned in city court before City Judge Lee S. Tillotson Saturday afternoon for a preliminary hearing on the charge of forgery. Elmer Johnson, his attorney, entered a plea of not guilty, and tried to show that the obligation over which the question of forgery is raised was not a promissory note. After a brief hearing Seguin was bound over to await the action of the grand jury at the March term of Franklin county court, bail being fixed at $290.

LOWER CABOT.

Carl Harvey is at home for a few days from Montpelier seminary.

Mrs. Cordelia Loomis is spending the winter at Deacon Moses Haines'.

Miss Mary McAllister of St. Johnsbury has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Hatch.

On New Year's morning, the big black dog belonging to E. F. Smith of this place attacked and killed the pet collie dog belonging to L. P. Cole of Marshfield. Much indignation is expressed by the community that such dogs are allowed the freedom of the streets, and much sympathy is felt and expressed for Mr. Cole in the loss of his dog.

There was a quiet but pretty home wedding at Fowles Ford's on New Year's day when Miss Elizabeth Davison and Frank Cross were united in marriage by the Rev. J. C. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Haines have returned to Lower Cabot, where they are to reside with Mrs. Haines' father, J. G. Pike.

Phay Smith has gone into business with P. A. Pike. The firm now is Pike & Smith.

WALL STREET TIPS.

One thing may certainly be affirmed of the stock market. It is being extensively manipulated by professionals.—Providence Journal.

Lots of people on Wall street are wondering if they might not have had more fun in dropping their money at the races or in viewing Mr. Canfield's art gallery.—Newark News.

The man who hasn't been selling something that he hasn't got or buying something that he never expects to have actual possession of is never particularly worried at a report of a panic in Wall street.—Memphis Schmitzer.

COLLEGE HAZING.

It is incumbent upon the university to suppress hazing, with or without the co-operation of the police. It bodes ill for the republic if our institutions of learning are to foster the mob spirit of violence.—Baltimore Sun.

Hazing used to be approved. Later on it was excused, and now it is deprecated and forbidden. After awhile it will be stopped altogether. In the meanwhile the boy who is threatened with physical violence has a fight to defend himself.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

POKER CHIPS.

A German jurist has decided that poker is not a game of chance. He's probably been "sitting in" with a delegation from the United States senate.—Philadelphia North American.

A German court has decided that poker is not a game of chance. It certainly isn't when an innocent stranger sits down to take a hand "in a friendly little game" operated by gentlemen who depend on it for a living.—Chicago Record-Herald.

British Army Horses.

The average life of horses in the British cavalry is just five years, but the army service draft horses last half as long again.

How to Get Health

The Secret of Restoring Health Lies in Replacing the Same Substances to the Body That Have Become Impoverished or Wasted

By disease, overwork, worry, exposure or abuse. When you are run down, getting thin, weak, and tire on the slightest exertion, the life and strength of your blood are wearing out. When you grow irritable, melancholy and nervous your nerve force is decaying and vitality is becoming low. Disease acts on those whose blood is watery, impoverished or impure, and never affects persons who have plenty of rich and pure blood. Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food supplies what is lacking in the blood and nerve force. It contains everything that makes new and rich blood and perfect nerves, in fact, it is blood itself—the very essence of nerve force, making it the grandest of all tonics for the sick, convalescent and overworked. It restores vim, vigor and vitality to aged and worn out people, and imparts a glow of health to pale and sallow people. Price 50 cents.

Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Brown.
